Donald Ross Invitational Tournament

Royal Dornoch Golf Club, Scotland, October 8th to October 12th 2017

- Donald Ross is arguably the father of American golf, for his design of some of the most prestigious and revered courses in the United States
- In 2017, 145 years after his birth, a unique celebration to honour and pay tribute to this great golfing legend will launch at Royal Dornoch Golf Club, Ross's home club and the course that influenced him more than any other...
- The inaugural Donald Ross Tournament will take place from 8th to 12th October 2017 to celebrate the life and heritage of one of the most influential designers in the history of the game
- Access to this exclusive 4 day tournament is by an invitation, open to members & representatives of Donald Ross affiliated golf clubs
- This exceptional pilgrimage of golf, heritage and networking is a "must" for Donald Ross aficionados.

"Royal Dornoch is delighted to be working with our friends at Carr Golf on the inaugural Donald Ross Golf Competition. Famous for his work around the world, and his origins in Dornoch, it seems fitting, and overdue, that a competition bears his name and is played over the links that he grew up on. Much of his talent as player is overlooked as people discuss his work as an architect so we hope that both will come to the fore during the event."

Neil Hampton, General Manager, Royal Dornoch Golf Links
